

Alpha Prime Supps LEGACY Series Pre-Workout and Pump

written by Mike Roberto | February 18, 2022

This is how a legacy begins.

Alpha Prime Supps may be a relatively new supplement brand, but they're a serious one. Their energy and drive was put on display earlier in February of 2021, when Ben Kane of PricePLOW flew down to Florida to see the promising young team in search of a new frontier in the supplement industry:

From racing to sports nutrition: Meet Caesar Bacarella

The story begins with Caesar Bacarella, a professional race car driver who competes in the NASCAR Xfinity Series, driving for Alpha Prime Racing. Alpha Prime runs a fantastic apparel business, but as a top-tier athlete, Caesar found himself amidst the world of sports supplements, looking for an extra edge in his health, fitness, and focus.

Are you ready for your legacy? After a year of hard work, Alpha Prime Supps has released their Legacy Series Pre-Workout and Pump Supplements Caesar instantly fell in love with the world of supplements, and before you knew it, Alpha Prime began dabbling into supplements. Caesar's likable enthusiasm is downright infectious, and he was able to enlist Brian "Ike" Ikalina as his VP (explained in Episode #043 of the PricePLOW Podcast). The duo began the Alpha Prime Supps, and with some incredibly impactful supplements, are well on their way to a new legacy.

The Alpha Prime Legacy Starts here

When it comes to the sports nutrition niche of the supplement industry, there's generally one way to begin your legacy: with an epic pre workout stack. Alpha Prime has done just that, with their new Legacy Series, which includes the Legacy Series Pre and Legacy Series Pump. Inside, we're treated to some incredibly powerful and well-dosed formulas, with a brand new innovation in the Pump formula.

A brand with drive

AP goes big on a couple of ingredients, so if you're ready to feel a sick pump and crystal clear energy, you're ready for the Legacy Series. It's all covered below – but first check the availability on PricePLOW and sign up for our Alpha Prime alerts – we have a lot more coming from the hot upstart:
