

Black Magic Supply Ecto Plasm Now in (Orange) Sherbet Pop

written by Mike Roberto | July 27, 2022

Supplement industry retail powerhouse Black Magic Supply has taken the scene by storm with their potent yet wisely-formulated supplement formulas.

Their first product launch, the BZRK pre workout, was laden with monster doses of hard-hitting stimulant ingredients. It's still going quite strong – we recently covered the new Orange Cooler flavor of BZRK, which sports a formula that *demand*s to be taken seriously. But Black Magic Supply isn't just about high-stim products – they've been offering up many other powerful workout supplements from "the other side".

Just as Black Magical: Stim-Free ECTO PLASM Pre-Workout

As any great artist will strive for versatility, the supplement game is no exception. The formulation wizards at Black Magic Supply have been expanding in a major way: In fall of 2021, they launched ECTO PLASM, their stim-free pre-workout supplement that goes big on pumps. This formula was just as powerful as that of BZRK, only from a different angle – pushing nitric oxide production to the MAX.

And you know they've got a good thing going when flavor expansion continues:

New ECTO PLASM Flavor: Sherbet POP

With no stimulants, ECTO PLASM has been all about nailing the flavor since the initial product launch. The fruit punch flavor was excellent, but we appreciated the inclusion of a most unique menu item as well: Purple Rain. This was simply something different, and quickly became a PricePLOW staff favorite.

Now Black Magic Supply is expanding the palette even more with Sherbet Pop.

The icy, fruity layers of this tropical flavor will have you insisting to anyone who'll listen that there must be witchcraft behind something so delicious – or perhaps voodoo.

In this article, we recap the formula, but first, take a look at our coupon-powered prices and availability on PricePLOW:

* Percent Daily Values (DV) are based on a 2,000 calorie diet.  Daily Values (DV) not established.

Tons of nitric oxide production here, but don't forget that Nitrosigine is also doubling as a nootropic too!

In a single 1 scoop serving of ECTO PLASM from Black Magic Supply, you get a whopping 8,000 mg dose of citrulline malate, yielding 4.5 grams of pure citrulline, which is significantly above the clinically-verified minimum dose of 3 grams. But that's not all for nitric oxide – you also get a clinically-backed 1.5 gram dose of Nitrosigine, the inositol-stabilized arginine silicate with several research studies that we've covered in depth numerous times here on PricePLOW.

Combining citrulline and arginine is an awesome strategy for boosting nitric oxide levels – these two aminos in combination have consistently been shown to outperform either one alone.

You also get betaine and agmatine, two more potent NO-boosting ingredients, along with glycerol for hyperhydrated pumps.

The icing on the cake of this formula is the S7 blend, which has been shown to massively increase the bioavailability of nitric oxide (by up to 230%, according to one study!).

This is a great strategy for improving endothelial function: massively ramp up the nitric oxide with the main ingredients and then dramatically amplify the effects of that NO by increasing your body's utilization of it.
