Also written as 3M3ER Non-Stim, Inspired Nutraceuticals Ember Non-Stim brings the potent MitoBurn/CaloriBurn combo, and boosts thyroid help with added iodine from kelp!

We recently covered the unique and powerful Ember *Non-Stim, which we loved thanks to its synergistic blend of MitoBurn and CaloriBurn to amplify brown adipose tissue thermogenesis and energy expenditure. It also provides a dose of iodine, a mineral we believe too many dieters are potentially deficient in.

There's more to Ember Non-Stim, so you can read the article linked above, but one thing it doesn't have is caffeine! And while the original Inspired Nutraceuticals EMBER Powder is a phenomenal stimulant-based fat burning drink, sometimes we just want the convenience of capsules.

That's where EMBER Stim comes in. You can peak at the label above to see what's in it, but we're not sure what's truly inside. One idea is that the last two ingredients dosed at 2 milligrams could possibly be yohimbine variations. What we do know is that it'll have have 30 total servings per container, and Inspired is discussing energy, focus, and fat loss on the label.
