

NutraBio Cherry Limeade Flavor System

written by Mike Roberto | October 29, 2018

A month after celebrating their (now-discontinued) EAA Energy launch, which included a new Cherry Limeade flavor system, NutraBio has taken it to the top-rated, fully-loaded NutraBio Pre Workout:

Split right down the middle between cherry and limeade, NutraBio PRE fans have a new flavor to try!

Split right down the middle between cherry and limeade

As Ben explained in our earlier NutraBio EAA Energy / BioCrew launch video:

“So we had a fun time coming up with the cherry limeade because there’s a huge range of cherry limeades out there. It’s down to a candy cherry all the way up to a very lime feel. I think we hit it right in the middle. You’re going to drink it and you’re going to get that rush of awesome sweet cherry, and then at the end of it, it tails off with some lime to be like a ‘refresher’. So that sweet sweet cherry doesn’t last way too long.”

Still a well-rated pre workout

As someone who is fortunate enough to test hundreds of supplements, including a variety of pre workouts, I admittedly can’t use this supplement non-stop. But when it’s time to build, and I have no time to tinker, I fall back to NutraBio Pre Workout.

Avoiding sucralose, then check out NutraBio Natural Series Pre, which is in my current arsenal with 5g organic cane sugar and stevia

Why? Because there's no more tinkering. My creatine, betaine, and beta alanine, are all covered. It has extra leucine, which is the driving force essential amino acid. Focus, energy, pumps, and electrolytes are all covered. And with that Natural Series version, there's also 5g carbs added, and pre workout is the time to get carbs in!

So when I have no time to be messing around with scoops of this and that and just want it all in on place, this is the product. Sometimes there's time for tinkering, sometimes it's just time to get to work. When I want it all in one scoop, NutraBio Pre Workout it is.

And now that same amazing formula has cherry limeade too!
