ORDER

In response to the parties’ motion for clarification, [Doc. 32], this Court informs the parties that the dismissal of Civil Action Number 1:14-CV-2479-WBH was merely a procedural action to get an extra case number off of the Court’s docket after the two cases had been merged. Closing the case has no substantive effect whatsoever, and whatever claims, defenses, assertions, averments, and arguments that existed before this Court’s Order of August 1, 2014, still existed after the order was entered. All pleadings and other papers that were filed in Civil Action Number 1:14-CV-2479-WBH either here or when the case was pending in the District Court in Washington, DC, are now a part of this case. This Court relies on the parties to streamline matters so that the case makes sense.

The joint preliminary planning report is now due on September 30, 2014, and the remaining deadlines are adjusted in accordance with that date.

This Order has the effect of GRANTING the parties' joint motion for clarification, [Doc. 32].

IT IS SO ORDERED this 28th day of August, 2014.
